Player profile:	Media Talking about Benjamin Kotuley http://happyghana.com/Sports/meet-stephen-kotuley-liberty-professional-s-defensive-prodigy.html I am 6'0 ft tall and weighs 79kg,i am right footed, I am a big strong Central defender who can play in any position across the Defensive line. Strong in the tackle and in the air, with good positioning makes me a tough Central Defender. Strength, stamina and vision also allow me to comfortably play more often than at Right-Back and occasionally in the Center Back position. I am comfortable playing anywhere on the back line.. I am all-round Central defensive player. Strong in the tackle and good in the air. I have a great work engine and with excellent awareness and vision can spot a good pass. My awareness of other player's movement compliments my ball winning abilities which attribute to me being a completely rounded Central defensive player. I am a player that likes to drop deep, receive the ball from my defense and spring this into attack. I am a tireless runner, who in essence operates as a box-to-box player but with a high degree of technical ability, flair and creativity....
