Player profile:	I lived in Manchester with my family since the age of 6, I started playing football at the age of 8, I am a right footed player with the ability to use my left foot, at the age of 12 joining my first club Coedpoeth United U13 in Wales as a striker before transferring to Park Youth Fc in the first division, I represented the school team in high school helping them to the North Wales schools final. I joined Sale United after high school and played for Fc United Of Manchester at College level, I developed my basic skills and matured into playing a higher level of football, also gaining many experience playing English football around the county. At the age of 18 I went for a trial at Hyde United in the English National Conference League and got offered a scholarship to train with a full time club, I listened to many advice working with professional coaches. My style of play is unique, I like to be in control of the game, I'm an attacking player so I like to take on defenders with my incredible speed and technical ability, my main attribute is dribbling, I like to keep the ball close to feet and have a low centre of gravity which gives me greater agility to edge past defenders, I have an eye for goal and create opportunities for my team to score goals.
