Player profile:	I am left footed but very comfortable using my right foot (approx 65% of my goals scored have been with RF). Last season I predominately played as a left wing back/left back (as needed for the team) but I am very versatile & have/can also play either L/R wing. I have also played midfield & right back. Offensively I can either "go past" a defender & cross, or "cut inside" to link with offensive attackers. I have an accurate passing ability from short to long range. Defensively I use my positioning, timing & game awareness to effectively block crosses, tackle & intercept. I have good speed & good endurance (+21 YoYo IR1 scores) I am comfortable playing possession based or fast counter attacking styles & I am the type of player that if the coach asks for a job to be done, he can rely on me to follow instruction and complete the job to a high standard. * 1 x video shows me play more defensive as a left back. * 1 video shows some more attacking playing as a left wingback/winger.
