Player profile:	Versatile and dynamic football player with experience at professional levels, known for combining speed, technical ability, and tactical intelligence. Primarily a striker with the capacity to excel as midfielder or a centre-back, I embody the principles of Johan Cruyff's total football philosophy, favoring quick, beautiful, and team-oriented play. I thrive in a system that emphasizes rapid passing, movement, and intelligent positioning. My strengths include heading, timing, and reading the game, making me an asset both in attack & defense also a real treat for any opponent. (Skills) Versatility: Experienced as a striker and centre-back with a deep understanding of both attacking and defensive roles. - Physical Attributes: Tall, strong, and fast, with an excellent leap and timing for aerial duels. - Technical Ability: Skilled with the ball at my feet, known for precise passing, sharp shooting, and excellent dribbling. - Tactical Intelligence: Adept at reading the game, making smart runs, and positioning to create and exploit space. - Leadership: Confident on the pitch with a natural ability to organize and motivate teammates. (Playstyle) I am a player who sees football as a blend of art and intelligence, committed to a playing style that prioritizes possession, rapid ball movement, and team coordination. Influenced by Johan Cruyff's philosophy, I strive to contribute to a system where every player is involved in creating attacking opportunities through quick passes, fluid movement, and intelligent positioning. (Experience) - Trained and competed against professional clubs in The Netherlands, Sweden and Germany, demonstrating my capability at high levels. - Participated in trial matches (SuperEttan, Ettan) showcasing adaptability, skill, and tactical understanding in multiple positions. - Proven track record in high-intensity matches, regularly playing against and alongside professional-level players.
