Player profile:	David's immense self beliefs and determination to succeed at the highest level has driven him to pursue his profession in all continents (except South America). He is probably the only Singaporean professional player to have done so. His adaptability to different tactics and formations and willingness to play for the team cause made him a vital cog in the plans of the coaches he has played for. On the attacking front, David is a good passer and crosser of the ball and he likes to make overlapping and supporting runs. Timely tackling, good positioning and aggressiveness on the ball are major features of his defensive game. His versatility and game intelligence enables him to slots into any position comfortably
